WHAT ABOUT FREIGHT BILL AUDITING?

Many shippers and LSPs are turning to freight bill payment and auditing solutions to gain critical insight. Traditionally a misunderstood part of the supply chain, freight bill audit and payment (FBAP) may be viewed as a mundane clerical process, but smart shippers recognize it as a source of business intelligence.

BatchMark XL uses the robust SMC³ pricing library of 4,000+ tariffs, including CzarLite base rates. With its own user interface independent of other systems, BatchMark[®] XL returns a customizable user-friendly template to facilitate analytics.

The bottom line is BatchMark XL can address the complexities of the freight expense management, facilitate audit, quickly batch rate thousands of freight bills and empower decision making and control over LTL freight spend!
